» COASTAL AREA

Koh Kong Province

Koh Kong

Koh Kong is a quaint but interesting border province that has had a reputation as a 'Wild West' frontier town. It is located at the southwestern tip of Cambodia near the mouth of the Kah Bpow River in Smach Mean Chey district on the Gulf of Thailand, a city only 10 kilometres from the Thai border. Its beaches have the reputation of being one of the best beaches in Southeast Asia.

Kep Province

Kep

Kep is a relaxing seaside province situated 168 km from Phnom Penh. Besides being known for its beaches, Kep is known for its salt and pepper but is best known particularly for its crabs. This coastal province is perceived as one of the 'must visits' when in Cambodia.

» ECO-TOURISM

Rattanakiri Province

Rattanakiri

Rattanakiri is renowned for its unique natural beauty and wealth of natural resources. The undulating hills and mountains, plateaus, watershed lowlands, clear crater lakes, rivers and beautiful waterfalls form an impressive itinerary of intriguing destinations for eco-tourism.

Mondul Kiri Province

Mondul Kiri

Mondul Kiri literally means 'Meeting of the Hills'. It is one of the most popular destinations for eco-tourism in Cambodia. The land is very rich in natural resources especially hard minerals such as gold and gems which can be found in all five districts of the province. Furthermore, this place is known for its forested hills and beautiful waterfalls.

Stung Treng Province

Sopheapkith Waterfall

This waterfall is the biggest waterfall along the Mekong river in Cambodia. This amazing waterfall never ceases to mesmerise visitors. The stretch of the mighty Mekong is also a great place to observe the very rare Irrawaddy dolphins.

Stung Treng Province

Kratie

Kratie is a relatively quiet town that is located on the east bank of the Mekong river. A great reason to explore this pleasant town is the possibility to view the local freshwater Irrawaddy dolphin population. It is easy to see the dolphins by taking a 25 minute boat ride that also makes it possible to admire the authentic life of the local Cambodians.
