Press Release

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation will hold its “Annual Conference 2020” from 30 to 31 January 2020 to assess the activities and challenges in 2019 as well as to chart the diplomatic directions and works for 2020.

On 31 January, Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia, will preside over the closing ceremony held at the Peace Palace to provide valuable recommendations and instructions to Cambodian diplomats in carrying out diplomatic missions. On that occasion, Samdech Techo Prime Minister will officially launch the hosting of the 13th Asia-Europe Summit 2020 in Cambodia during which the diplomatic corps will also be invited.

This Annual Conference will also be an opportunity for Cambodian diplomats to broaden practical knowledge and critical analysis on key issues relating to (1) “Contemporary Cambodian economy”, (2) “The situation of foreign investment in Cambodia” and (3) “Cambodia’s trade integration strategy”, in order for them to effectively further the Economic Diplomacy on the world arena.

The Annual Conference will be attended by the Ministry’s leaders and officials, Ambassadors/Permanent Representatives, Consuls-General, honorary consuls and representatives of relevant Ministries/Institutions of Cambodia.

Phnom Penh, 27 January 2020.
