Condolence of the Royal Government of Cambodia to People of the United States of America over severe devastation caused by tornadoes

The Royal Government of Cambodia has learned with deep grief over the loss of several lives and enormous property damages caused by savage tornadoes swiping through a number of states in the Midwest and South of the United States of America.

In this sobering and difficult time, the Royal Government and the Cambodian people wholeheartedly share our thought with the American people and wish to extend our heartfelt condolences and sympathy to the bereaved families who have lost their loved ones, and pray for the safeties to the unaccounted victims.
