On 21 July 2022, His Excellency PRAK Sokhonn, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia, and The Honorable Dato Erywan Pehin Yusof, Second Minister of Foreign Affairs of Brunei Darussalam, had a meeting via videoconference to discuss about issues related to the upcoming 55th ASEAN Ministerial Meeting and related meetings as well as to touch base on further deepening of bilateral friendship as both countries are marking the 30th Anniversary of the Establishment of Diplomatic Relations between Cambodia and Brunei Darussalam.

Honorable Dato Erywan Pehin Yusof reiterated full support of Brunei Darussalam to Cambodia's ASEAN Chairmanship in steering ASEAN through many monumental challenges of the world today. He shared his views on how to enhance dialogue partnerships between ASEAN and the United Kingdom and New Zealand, for which Brunei Darussalam is acting as the ASEAN Country-Coordinator. He also extended his strong encouragement to the untiring efforts of Excellency Deputy Prime Minister Prak Sokhonn, in his capacity as the Special Envoy of the ASEAN Chair on Myanmar, and shared his views and thoughts on how ASEAN could further advance the implementation of the ASEAN Leaders' Five Point Consensus.

For his part, Excellency Deputy Prime Minister thanked Honorable Dato Erywan Pehin Yusof for Brunei's support to Cambodia, and shared his views on various multilateral issues and cooperation of common interest. Both sides reiterated their commitment to strengthen multilateral cooperation for the sake of peace, stability, and sustainable development in the region and beyond.

Both Ministers also touched on bilateral relations and highly valued the close friendship between the two countries over the past three decades, which have been continuously strengthened in various areas for the mutual benefits of the two people and nations. .
