

(Translation)

H.E. Mr. Heng Samrin, President of the National Assembly

The Kingdom of Cambodia

Phnom Penh

Beijing, July 19, 2018

Your Excellency,

On the 60th anniversary of diplomatic relations between China and Cambodia, I would like to extend the warmest congratulations and best wishes to Your Excellency and through Your Excellency to the National Assembly and people of Cambodia, on behalf of the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of China and in my own name.

The 60 years of diplomatic relations has witnessed comprehensive development of China-Cambodia relations. The National People's Congress of China and the National Assembly of Cambodia have maintained close contacts and vigorously promoted the development of China-Cambodia relations as well as the legal system construction of the two countries.

The National People's Congress of China stands ready to work jointly with the National Assembly of Cambodia in carrying on the China-Cambodia traditional friendship, promoting exchanges and cooperation in various fields, and advancing new development of the China-Cambodia comprehensive strategic partnership of cooperation.

May the friendship between China and Cambodia last forever!

Wish your country and people peace and prosperity!

Li Zhanshu

Chairman of the Standing Committee of the National People's

Congress of the People's Republic of China